ABOUT US

The Bureau of Meteorology is one of the few organisations that touches the lives of all Australians and all Australia, every day. The Bureau works across Australia and remote islands, providing services from the Antarctic to beyond the equator, and from the Indian Ocean to the Pacific.

We are Australia's national weather, climate and water agency, in the Agriculture, Water and Environment portfolio of the Australian Government, operating under the authority of the Meteorology Act 1955 and the Water Act 2007. We provide data, information, knowledge, insight and wisdom to help Australians prepare and respond to the realities of their natural environment, including droughts, floods, fires, storms, tsunamis and tropical cyclones.

Our products and services include observations, forecasts, analysis and advice covering Australia's atmosphere, water, oceans and space environments. We undertake focussed scientific research in support of our operations and services. Through regular forecasts, warnings, monitoring and advice, we provide one of Australia's most fundamental and widely used public services.

We have strong relationships with our customers, partners and stakeholders in Australia, including the Australian Community and the emergency services sectors, all-levels of Government, and focus sectors including aviation, agriculture, energy and resources, national security and water.

WORKING AT THE BUREAU

The Bureau represents a dynamic and exciting opportunity. A role with the Bureau involves:

OUR WORK	OUR PEOPLE	OUR ENVIROMENT	OUR EXPIERENCE
Purpose-driven impactful work that brings real benefit to the Australian Community, businesses and industry.	A deeply passionate and highly skilled workforce that continuously challenges the status quo to achieve greater impact and experiences for our colleagues and customers.	A world class organisation with excellent workplaces in great locations, access to cutting-edge technology and a safe and inclusive environment for everyone.	A commitment to professional development and growth, backed by clear career pathways and training opportunities, and complimented by a competitive remuneration package.
